

ESSELTE Classic Reinforced Suspension File A4

Suspension files are an ideal way of keeping your office files in order. Commonly found in workplaces as well as home offices, suspension files are used as hanging files in filing cabinets, desk filing drawers and portable filing trolleys. Suspension files are an important part of everyday office filing as they allow a large capacity of documents to be filed into filing cabinets or filing drawers, saving a huge amount of space - perfect for offices of all sizes. With easy tab labelling and open top for quick file identification and file insertion, you can create an easy, effective filing system with very little space required.
