Product Description

This A5 Executive hardcover casebound notebook from Foray is a must have for any busy professional or student. With 200 pages of high quality 80gsm paper, you can be sure to have plenty of space to quickly make note of all of your important information. The lined ruling on each sheet ensures your notes will be kept neat and tidy.

The useful ribbon page marker means you can always keep track of your important notes and never lose your place. The micro perforated pages allow you to easily and neatly tear off sheets of paper, and share your ideas. The black hardboard casing of this notepad ensures a durable and professional finish. All Foray notebooks are quality assured.
